■ Tekst 1 I had to include...

I HAD to include this picture of United Airlines flight 7682 from Dulles International Airport, Washington DC to LaGuardia in NYC, sent in by a reader who survived the collision. As the plane reached 180mph and the nose lifted from the ground, there was an almighty bang and the flight was aborted.

When passengers were led off the plane, the sad truth of what had happened revealed itself. The hip joint of the low-flying turkey, pictured above, resting on the cockpit, was the only remaining recognisable body part.

In true American style, one animal lover hoped out loud that the turkey was okay, only to be put down by a fellow passenger: "Yes, ma'am, the buzzard has been airlifted on a life-saver helicopter to George Washington Hospital emergency-care facility and is currently being fitted with a prosthetic head and wings."
