PICK OF THE DAY

The Secret Millionaire

Channel 4, 9pm

1 Each week, a different millionaire goes undercover among the needy to decide who is most deserving of his or her generosity: this new series is either a jolly good wheeze or an alarming example of social voyeurism masked as philanthropy, depending on your point of view. Either way, it makes for very watchable television.

2 Tonight's first Rockefeller is Ben Way (picture). At just 16 years of age, the new-technology boffin signed his first major deal for £25 million. The baby-faced millionaire still looks much younger than his actual age of 25, and having prospered despite a broken home and severe dyslexia, he now wants to help others to overcome life's obstacles.

3 You'd think that sticking this moneyed choirboy in the notorious 'Murder Mile' of inner-London's Hackney would be an accident waiting to happen but, thanks to his earnestly honest approach, Way acquits himself well as a volunteer at a local youth centre. There he meets amazingly committed stalwarts who do so much for those around them yet ask for nothing in return. Ufu, the streetwise manager of Pedro Youth Club, seems to have kept it going single-handedly, while former boxing champion James Cook dedicates his life to battling the scourges of drugs and crime. Meanwhile, talented teenage artist Wayne dreams of selling his own range of designer fashion.

4 Of course, the money shot here is the money shot, but before we learn whose name is on the cheque, this show's positive portrait of a community adds up to much more than just the financial bottom line.
