Excellent news arrives from the BBC. Corporation executives have decided to rip out all the carpets in the £1bn New Broadcasting House because they are not sufficiently "inspiring". Quite right. I find it impossible to think creatively if I am surrounded by bland and unchallenging floor coverings. Woodstrip, in particular, leaves me in a state of catatonic despair.

What the BBC needs is far more 1, yet inclusive, carpeting. That might stop it commissioning such turgid, predictable dross as David Hare's Turks & Caicos. Only a man surrounded by grey acrylic/wool carpet tiles, could possibly have sanctioned that steaming pile of ordure. Onwards and upwards.
